Meet Our Young Adult Worship Arts Performers
Sunday, May 10th | Liturgical Dance by Deborah

Deborah is a dedicated young dancer and student at Kings Grant Elementary School. She began her dance journey at just 3 years old and has trained at Music in Motion Dance Studio since the age of 6. As a proud member of both the Company and Production Team, Deborah studies ballet, lyrical, contemporary, jazz, and hip hop. She also has performed with the Norfolk Admirals Junior Dance Team.

In 2025, Deborah was honored with the Darlene Davenport Jazz Performance Potential Scholarship, recognizing her hard work, passion, and promise as a performer. Foundry is blessed to have Deborah share her gifts in worship!

Sunday, May 17th | Ericka, Violin

Ericka is a precocious 11-year-old, homeschooled student from Virginia Beach Virginia. She enjoys spending time with her adorable pet cat, Oliver. She is an avid reader and relishes in practicing her several musical instruments. She is looking forward to the upcoming school year, future community service opportunities, and Girl Scout Projects. She is grateful to be a part of the Foundry Family!
