WELCOME LAWSON, our Guest Trumpeter, to FOUNDRY!

Lawson Burroughs is a junior at Princess Anne High School, where he participates in the IB Program and is a member of the band program under the direction of John Boyd, serving as lead trumpet and section leader. He also attends the Governor's School for the Arts in the Instrumental Department, led by Amanda Gates and Stephen Coxe, where he plays in several ensembles. Lawson also studies jazz under the guidance of Joe Bussey and Justin Kauflin. His musical journey began in 5th grade, and he has continued to grow as a musician through private studies with Roy Muth and Manny Hernandez. Lawson loves all types of music and hopes to pursue a major in music performance. He is deeply grateful to his mentors, teachers, and all who have supported him along the way. Foundry is blessed to have you lead us in worship today!

Reflection Anthem “My Eternal King” Foundry Choir

Text from a 17th-century anonymous Latin Poem translated by Rev. Edward Caswall
Music by Jane M. Marshall in 1952, whose career as the consummate Methodist composer of our time was launched with this thought-provoking work, at just 26 years of age.

*My God, I love Thee;
Not because I hope for heaven thereby,
Nor yet because who love Thee not must die eternally.
Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me upon the cross embrace;
For me didst bear the nails and spear, and manifold disgrace.
Why, then, why, O blessed Jesus Christ, should I not love Thee well?
Not for the hope of winning heaven, or of escaping hell;
Not with the hope of gaining aught; not seeking a reward;
But as thyself hast loved me, O ever-loving Lord!
E’n so I love Thee, and will love, and in Thy praise will sing;
Solely because Thou art my God, and my Eternal King.*
